- * Parents As Partner Series: Value. Our Christian school is intentional in providing quality and value. We believe the best collaboration for student success is to actively partner with our parents. In this series, Parents As Partners, we will be sharing our program standards for parental involvement, parental participation inside and outside the classroom, along with support for the home. This week's topic is value. Our Christian school establishes a safe nurturing environment that is viewed by our families as welcoming and respectful. It is our aim that a parental partnership provides a superior educational atmosphere of importance and significance. To find out more about the value difference for your child or grandchild, friend or neighbor, please contact Juliebee Roberts / jolly12bee@outlook.com / (520) 483-8027.
- * YouTube Videos: While it is easy to show a YouTube video during a church event, unfortunately, in most cases, it is a violation of copyright unless we have written permission, or the video has a Creative Commons-Attribution license. If you have questions on this, please talk with Bob Coffen. Thank you for your cooperation.
