* Paying For Christian Education: To be a school of quality, one that offers quality curriculum taught by quality instructors, in a quality facility with quality tools and resources costs money. Money is integral to quality, in that quality requires investment in order to achieve a desired outcome. It is our ambitious goal that no child is denied a Christian education because of finances. Your gift is always tax-deductible, and it feels great to make a difference! Need to know more, please contact Juliebee Roberts / jolly12bee@outlook.com / (520) 432-9186 for a personalized education conversation.
